Significant Mobility Impairment Entrance Card

The Significant Mobility Impairment (SMI) Entrance Card enables Members to utilise the dedicated Priority Entrance Queue at Gate 8 for International, BBL and selected matches. This queue will be admitted in to the ground approximately 10 minutes before the advertised opening times.

To be eligible for the SMI Entrance Card, Members are required to provide a copy of their current ACROD pass and supporting documentation from their Medical Practitioner stating the Members significant mobility impairment. The WACA Membership department will assess each application to determine if an SMI Entrance Card will be issued.

Members who are issued with an SMI Entrance Card will automatically be registered to receive information regarding disabled parking.
